

Introduction to Defensive Driving (Ideal for Students and New Drivers)

APS Training Group is a Registered Training Organisation (Provider No: 31588) under the Australian Quality Training Framework and are pleased to offer the following course:

Course outline: This training is designed to assist the student in recognising risks, hazards and improving basic driving skills. It is designed to educate drivers of the risks and hazards associated with driving and provide the skills needed to avoid accidents. It encourages proactive defensive driving aimed at improving community road safety. The training also covers areas such as; vehicle preparation, seating position, dealing with an accident, first aid, observation skills, attitude, fatigue and distractions, to name a few...

Delivery mode: This course is provided in a classroom style presentation with some visual resources. No theory assessment is provided with this training.

Prerequisites: There are no prerequisites for this training course

Who should attend: This training is designed for all persons who have just obtained or about to obtain a learner's permit or drivers licence.

Certification: Participants who attend these training sessions will receive a Statement of Attendance. This course is not nationally accredited

Participants: Numbers limited to Venue size (Groups from 10 – 20 would be ideal)

Where: APS or at your facility

Duration: As required to meet clients needs (Standard 1 – 2 hours)

Cost: Call for quotation

Phone: 1300 880 604

Email: training@apscorp.com.au

APSTG-SDT-WEBA4 v3 May10